2017-18 FIU ATHLETICS
YEAR IN REVIEW
2017 WOMEN’S SOCCER

2017 RECORD: 1-14 | C-USA RECORD: 0-10 (14TH) | POSTSEASON: N/A

A new era for the FIU women’s soccer program began in 2017, as Sharolta Nonen took over the reigns to become just the third head coach in program history. Despite only winning one match in 2017, the Panthers played seven one-goal games on the year with a few unlucky breaks along the way for the youthful squad.

In the Panthers’ lone victory on the season, FIU shutout Jacksonville on the road to secure a 1-0 win and snap a six-match losing skid that stretched over two seasons. Sophomore forward Isabella de Almagro scored in the 24th minute of the match, as senior goalkeeper Nevena Stojakovic posted a clean sheet, the ninth of her career, to seal the 1-0 win for FIU.

Offensively, senior midfielder Courtney Phillips led the squad in goals on the year, after scoring a pair for the Panthers, while the sophomore duo of Ashley Adams and Michaela Rouse each added a score as well for FIU. Between the posts, FIU was led by senior goalie Stojakovic, who saved a career-high 87 shots on the year, while tallying a league-high 63 saves for C-USA matches. Stojakovic was aided by defender Sierra Moss, who was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team following her efforts in 2017.

2017 INDOOR VOLLEYBALL

2017 RECORD: 6-16 | C-USA RECORD: 4-10 (10TH) | POSTSEASON: N/A

The 2017 season was filled with progress for the FIU indoor volleyball team, despite the Panthers finding themselves in a rebuilding year. FIU finished the season with a 6-16 mark overall, but did manage to reel off four wins in their last seven matches to close out the year.

The 2017 roster was very young, with a total of nine players being either a freshman or sophomore, but the energetic squad gained valuable experience that the Panthers hope translates into wins for 2018 as 11 players return next season.

The Panthers’ first conference win of the season came on the road in Boca Raton, as FIU dispatched Florida Atlantic with ease, 3-1. The victory marked FIU’s first win over FAU on the road since 2015. The Panthers swept the Owls that season as FIU earned a winning record at 15-13 for the year.

Five of FIU’s matches in 2017 went to a fifth deciding set, but the Panthers were only able to take one of those contests due to their inexperience.

FIU was led by sensational junior Margherita Bianchin, who topped the squad in kills (241), points (283), attacks (783) and service aces (21) in 2017. Senior Taija Thomas was a close second in kills (240), while also recording an impressive 654 attacks and 272 points.

Sophomore Helene Thelle ranked fifth in C-USA for digs with 297 and averaged 3.71 per game in 2017, while true freshman Sasha Grigoreva earned 19 service aces to place 10th in the league.
2017 MEN’S SOCCER

2017 RECORD: 12-2-4 | C-USA RECORD: 11-0-4 (1ST) | POSTSEASON: NCAA 2ND ROUND

The FIU men’s soccer team recorded one of the most successful seasons in the program’s storied history during 2017 posting a 12-2-4 record and a 6-0-2 mark in Conference USA, while earning their first-ever C-USA regular season title. The 12 wins by the Panthers marked the second time in just three seasons that FIU had earned at least 12 victories and the third-straight season with 10 or more wins in a year.

FIU finished the regular season with an 11-0-4 record, marking the first time in school history that the Panthers logged an undefeated regular season. FIU was also one of only two teams in Division I men’s soccer to accomplish the undefeated feat, joining Indiana.

FIU advanced to its 19th NCAA Championship, and its 11th at Division I, winning their first-round game against Omaha, 2-0, before being eliminated by No. 14 Duke, 2-1, in Durham.

The Panthers were led by junior forward Santiago Patino in 2017, who scored a conference-best 15 goals on the year. Patino also led FIU in points (35), shots (51), shots (27) on goal and game-winning goals (3). Between the posts, junior Hugo Fauroux made a team-high 55 saves on the year, while only giving up 21 scores.

During the 2017 campaign, the Panthers garnered four NSCAA All-Southeast Region honors, had seven student-athletes earn All-Conference USA recognition – including Patino being named Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, and the C-USA Golden Boot Recipient, and Kevin Nylen being named Coach of the Year – and one being named to the C-USA All-Academic Team and the CoSIDA Academic All-District Team. Patino was also named First Team All-American and Paul Marie was named Third Team All-American by the United Soccer Coaches. In addition, Marie was a first-round pick by the San Jose Earthquake in the 2018 MLS Super Draft.

Butch Davis took over the reigns in 2017, becoming the fourth head coach in FIU football history as he guided FIU to a banner season in only his first year. The Panthers matched the program record for wins (8) and earned the school’s third bowl berth - the first since 2011 - with an appearance in the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl. The Panthers also finished 5-3 in the C-USA East Division, which was good enough for second place.

Among the 22 new head coaches hired for the 2017 season in the FBS, only eight won at least seven games and only five of those won more games than FIU’s Davis in his first season. Davis’ 2017 FIU squad not only matched the school record in wins, but the 2017 Panthers finished the regular season throwing for the most passing yards (3,031) and rushing for the second-most yards (2,069) in school history. The offense also totaled the second-most yards (5,100) and FIU scored the second-most points (333) in a season. Defensively, the Panthers’ 23 sacks ranked eighth in a single-season and the 75 tackles for loss tied for seventh.

The success of Davis’ first season led FIU to having the No. 1 ranked 2018 signing class in Conference USA and 67th nationally. Individually, FIU had 12 players earn All-Conference USA honors highlighted by first team selection Thomas Owens. Quarterback Alex McGough, left guard Jordan Budwig, linebacker Anthony Wint and cornerback Brad Muhammad earned second team All-CUSA honors while another six Panthers garnered honorable mention recognition and freshman Bryce Singleton made the All-CUSA Freshman Team.

QB McGough finished his career as FIU’s all-time career leader in touchdown passes (65) and second in career completions (806) and passing yards (9,091). He completed 232-of-355 passes for a single-season FIU school record 2,798 yards with 17 touchdowns and eight interceptions, while recording a career-best and FIU best 65.4 completion percentage in 2017. He ranked in the top five in C-USA in passing yards per game (215.2) and passing efficiency (142.8).

Alex Gardner finished his career ranked at the top of the list in career rushing yards (3,063 – 1st), rushing attempts (685 – 1st), and rushing touchdowns (22 – 3rd). Gardner became the only running back in FIU history to eclipse 3,000 yards after his stellar career with the Panthers.

The 2017 season was a major step forward for the FIU women’s cross country program as the squad posted one of the best seasons in school history for the sport. The women and men competed in five regular season meets in 2017, with the women winning one meet and taking a runner-up showing in another.

Team success wasn’t the only highlight for 2017 however, as sophomore Sherilene Gelderblom had one of the best seasons by any cross country athlete in school history. The South Africa native broke the school record in the 5K, won her first collegiate meet, earned the program’s first-ever All-Conference USA honor and narrowly missed out on being the school’s first All-South Region honoree.

The 2017 season was a major step forward for the FIU women’s cross country program as the squad posted one of the best seasons in school history for the sport. The women and men competed in five regular season meets in 2017, with the women winning one meet and taking a runner-up showing in another.

Team success wasn’t the only highlight for 2017 however, as sophomore Sherilene Gelderblom had one of the best seasons by any cross country athlete in school history. The South Africa native broke the school record in the 5K, won her first collegiate meet, earned the program’s first-ever All-Conference USA honor and narrowly missed out on being the school’s first All-South Region honoree.

The women started out the first half of the cross country campaign strong, as the Panthers placed second overall at the Gator Invitational in nearby Gainesville. The squad scored 148 points at the 5K event, with Gelderblom leading the pack with her school-record 17:21.2 time to place runner-up at the Florida -hosted event. The runner-up finish for FIU was a major improvement from just one season, as the Panther women finished the 2016 event toward the back of the pack.

FIU’s finish at the Gator Invitational was only the first sign of big things to come for the Panthers as the women followed up the runner-up showing with a win at the Disney Cross Country Classic 5K in Orlando, beating out the likes of host UCF, Florida Atlantic and Youngstown State.

Much like the entire season for FIU’s women, Gelderblom led the Panthers - but this time she took gold - as the sophomore won her first collegiate race after a time of 18:00.8 in the 5K.

The Panthers continued their improvement at the Conference USA Championships in Clint, Mississippi as FIU posted the program’s best finish at the event, with an eighth-place showing. Gelderblom finished sixth in the 5K, following her time of 17:22.41, to claim First Team All-Conference USA honors in the process.

The Panthers closed out the year at the NCAA South Region Championships in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. FIU placed 24th for the event. Gelderblom narrowly missed out on all-region honors for the Panthers, after the sophomore placed 26th overall and finished two slots shy of the honor.

On the men’s side, the Panthers posted a top-10 finish four times on the season. FIU’s men earned a season-best fifth overall at two meets, the first coming at the Florida Atlantic Invitational 8K to open the season and the next coming at the Disney Cross Country Classic 8K in Orlando.

The FIU men were led by Areces brothers in 2017, as the sibling duo of Daniel and Jorge Areces posted eight of the Panthers’ nine individual top-70 finishes. Daniel earned the highest finish on the season after placing 22nd overall at the FAU Invitational, while Jorge earned the fastest time after clocking a 27:41.68 at the C-USA Championships.
FIU women’s tennis posted one of its best seasons in recent history after the Panthers downed Rice to win the school’s first C-USA Championship in program history, while also going 17-3 overall and earning the school’s ninth overall NCAA Team Championship berth.

FIU was led by senior Andrea Lazaro, who earned the program’s first national title after winning the Oracle ITA National Fall Championship to close out 2017. Lazaro also became the school’s first ITA All-American in the spring of 2018 after earning a program-best 30-5 record in singles play.

The 2017-18 campaign began with a strong start as FIU won 10 of its first 11 matches to open the season. The Panthers carried early momentum into league play as FIU went a perfect 6-0 to lock up the No. 1 seed heading into the C-USA Championship.

FIU blanked Charlotte and Middle Tennessee to open the conference tournament, but was tasked with upending Rice, who had won the last five C-USA titles. The Owls did not back down to the perennial champions as FIU earned a thrilling 4-3 victory over the Owls to capture the school’s first C-USA title in program history. After earning the program’s ninth NCAA Team Championship berth and first since 2011, FIU would fall narrowly to UCF, 4-3, to bring the Panthers’ dual-match season to a close.

A record three Panthers were selected for the NCAA Individual Championships following the end of the dual-match season, as Lazaro (singles) and the duo of Ulyana Grib and Maryna Veklser (doubles) earned bids. Lazaro downed three foes in the NCAA Singles Championships, before falling in quarterfinals. Just as she did to start the season, Lazaro made history once again in 2017-18 as she became the first Panther in program history to advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Singles Championships.

The 2017-18 season was a rebuilding time for the FIU women’s golf program, with all but one Panther being a freshman or sophomore. In total, the Panthers had five freshmen, three sophomores and one senior comprise the 2017-18 roster.

The youthful squad earned five top-10 finishes on the year, with a season-best third-place finish at the Pat Bradley Invitational in Sarasota, Florida. FIU capped the season finishing eighth at the C-USA Tournament.

The Panthers earned a pair of selections for the All-Conference USA team, with freshman Valentina Gilly and senior Katerina Krasova each claiming third team spots for their efforts in 2017-18.

Gilly, who played at the No. 1 spot for the Panthers, led FIU in stroke average at 75.00. She tied for ninth at the 2018 C-USA Championships in Fort Myers. She posted one of the lowest rounds at the event shooting four-under par 68 in the final round to finish 6-over 222. On the season, she had four Top 25 finishes in six tournaments after joining the Panthers in the spring.

Krasova, who was the No. 2 player for the Panthers and the team captain, averaged 76.03 in nine tournaments. She posted three Top 30 finishes, with her highest finish coming at the Charleston Invitational, where she tied for 12th. Krasova was named Most Improved Player in the conference for the 2016-17 season.

C-USA COACH OF THE YEAR
KATARINA PETROVIC

• Became the tennis program’s 1st C-USA Coach of the Year Award winner in 2017-18
• Led FIU to its 1st NCAA postseason berth since 2011, while leading the Panthers to an undefeated record in league play
• Guided FIU to its first C-USA title in program history after the Panthers defeated Rice, 4-3, to snap the Owls 5-year streak as champs
• Earned a 17-3 record overall in 2018 dual-matches, which puts Petrovic in 3rd place all-time at FIU for coaching wins with 61 total victories in just five seasons
• The Panthers earned their highest final ITA ranking since 2009 after capping the year at No. 41
• Coached FIU’s 1st All-American, National Champion and highest ranked player in school history, Andrea Lazaro
The 2017-18 season was another successful campaign for the FIU swimming and diving team, as the Panthers won their fourth-straight C-USA title in dominating fashion following a championship-record 1,031 points at the league event. FIU closed out the 2017-18 season with additional hardware, after the Panthers captured their first College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) National Invitational Championship title.

FIU went 8-4 in dual matches on the season, while also winning two meets. The season opened with a decisive home victory in late September over the Miami Hurricanes, as the Panthers took nine of the first 16 events to post a dominating 164.5-115.5 win.

The momentum carried over into the FIU Fall Classic in early October, where the Panthers outpaced six other teams to take the event. On the same day, FIU also took a pair of dual wins over North Florida (157-104) and Georgia Southern (145-117), to push their record to 3-0 early on.

Following the hot start, the Panthers would stumble after dropping three tough contests to Rice, Tulane and Denver at the Dual-A-Pool-Oooza in New Orleans. The Panthers bounced back in impressive fashion however, as FIU won five of its last six dual matches to enter the C-USA Championships on fire.

Not only did the Panthers win their fourth-straight conference title at the league event, but FIU broke the championship record for most points scored as the squad posted a whopping 1,031 to win the title. FIU also finished first in nine of the 16 events as well, on their way to also claiming 45 All-Conference USA honors.

The Panthers swept the C-USA Swimming and Diving Awards voted on by the league’s coaches. Junior Naomi Ruele was named C-USA Swimmer of the Meet for the second time and senior Rebecca Quesnel was named C-USA Diver of the Meet. Ruele won one more individual gold medal in the 100 Freestyle and added another gold medal as part of the 400 Freestyle Relay Saturday.

For the meet, Ruele collected individual gold medals in the 50 Free, 100 Free and 100 Backstroke and helped her squad to wins in the 400 Free Relay, 400 Medley Relay, 200 Medley Relay and 200 Free Relay. She also set a school record in the 50 Free with a time of 22.11 in the event. Head Coach Randy Horner was voted C-USA Swimming Coach of the Year for the fourth-straight season, while Rio Ramirez was named the C-USA Diving Coach of the Year, FIU dominated the superlative awards, taking four of the five top individual honors, including: Swimmer of the Year (Ruele), Diver of the Year (Quesnel), Freshman Swimmer of the Year (Sara Gyertyanffy) and finally Freshman Diver of the Year (Rachel Foord).

Following the regular season, Ruele and Quesnel earned berths to the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships, the third and second-straight seasons for the pair respectively.

The Panthers weren’t finished with the 2017-18 postseason however, as FIU took the CSCAA National Invitational Championship crown for the first time in program history.

The FIU men’s basketball team ended the 2017-18 season with a 14-18 overall record and an 8-10 record in Conference USA, while advancing to the C-USA Tournament in Frisco, Texas.

FIU’s 14 wins in 2017-18 was an improvement from the previous season, as the Panthers doubled their win total with 14 victories on the year. FIU posted a 10-7 record at home as well, including wins over South Alabama, Florida Gulf Coast, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Rice and College Basketball Invitational champion, North Texas.

The Panthers started slow out of the gate, after dropping three of their first four games to begin the season, but bounced back to take four out of their next five contests. Including in that stretch was an impressive 65-53 road win at South Florida. FIU closed out the non-conference slate with a 6-8 mark overall.

Moving into C-USA play, the Panthers opened league action with a thrilling one-point victory over Florida Atlantic (58-57), but didn’t capitalize on the momentum as FIU followed up the win by losing four of its next five games.

After managing a 3-5 record over the meat of the conference slate, the Panthers responded with a 3-1 record to close out the regular season as FIU earned three tough wins over North Texas (69-68), Rice (67-64) and Charlotte (89-83). The Panthers’ luck ran out in the C-USA Tournament however, as FIU dropped a heartbreaking, 69-68 decision to Southern Miss to end the 2017-18 season.

The Panthers were led this season by Brian Beard, Jr. who averaged 16.4 points-per-game, 5.7 assists-per-game, and 2.9 steals-per-game, which were all ranked in the top-10 in Conference USA. The California native scored 508 total points which is the third-most scored in a single season by a junior. Beard, Jr. also finished fifth in the nation in steals-per-game, while his 90 steals broke a single-season school record. The guard was named Third Team All-Conference USA and was selected to the C-USA All-Defensive Team.

In addition, Trejon Jacob was second in scoring, averaging 14.5 points-per-game and 5.0 rebounds-per-game, and Eric Lockett averaged 14.3 points-per-game and a team-high 6.5 rebounds-per-outing. Jacob’s 451 total points is the second most scored by a sophomore in a single season at FIU. Early on in the season, Jacob would set a men’s Ocean Bank Convocation Center record by scoring 38 points against Florida Gulf Coast on Dec. 19.

Brian Beard Jr. ’s 2017-18 Resume

- 14 Wins for FIU were the most for the program since the 2014-15 season
- 508 Points scored by Brian Beard Jr. was the 8th Most in a Season at FIU
- 451 Trejon Jacob’s 451 Points ranked as the 2nd Most Scored by a Sophomore in School History
- 38 Trejon Jacob Set a Men’s Ocean Bank Convocation Center Scoring Record with 38 Points Against FGCU

- His 2.9 Steals Per Game Topped C-USA and Ranked 5th Nationally in 2017-18
- Named 3rd Team All-Conference USA for the 2017-18 Season
- Earned C-USA All-Defensive Team Honors
- Broke FIU’s Single-Season Program Record for Steals (90) and Assists (178)
In only Tiara Malcolm’s second full season at the helm of the FIU women’s basketball team, the Panthers continued to improve and grow as the 2017-18 season gave a preview of the bright future ahead for the program. The Panthers posted eight wins in 2017-18, which marked the most victories for the program since the 2013-14 season. The improvement was also seen in C-USA play, as FIU collected five wins in league action to also mark the most victories by the program since the 2013-14 season.

The Panthers represented the program well to open the season, as FIU pushed 24th-ranked Miami to its limit on the road, but ultimately fell, 77-69. FIU would claim its first win of the season at home, after the Panthers held on to defeat Air Force, 70-69. The Panthers earned two more hard-fought victories in non-conference play to close out 2017, as FIU bested Charleston Southern (77-70) before taking down Vermont (80-70) later after a 40-point performance from Alexis Gordon.

With three wins already under their belt entering C-USA play, the Panthers would win three of their first five league games to start 2018. FIU downed Marshall (67-54), Rice (68-58) and Louisiana Tech (57-54) all at home to bring a spark to the 2017-18 season.

FIU would stumble over the next seven contests however, until the Panthers broke their losing skid against Florida Atlantic on Senior Day with a dominant 86-65 win at home over the Owls.

The 2017-18 season would end on a high note as the Panthers escaped Hattiesburg with a 74-70 win over Southern Miss. The 74-70 victory over USM was monumental for the FIU women’s basketball program and a barometer of things to come as it marked the Panthers’ first-ever win over the Golden Eagles in C-USA play.

Junior Kristian Hudson paced the Panthers in 2017-18 as the guard averaged 14.5 points per contest. Hudson posted a team-best 21 games in double figures, including nine games with 20 points or more. Hudson also became FIU’s latest scorer to cross the 1,000-point mark after achieving the feat on Senior Day against Florida Atlantic.

Hudson was the Panthers best passer as well, leading the team in assists after dishing out 4.7 per game in 2017-18. The junior also swiped a team-best 30 steals for the season.

Redshirt junior Kiandre’a Pound was not far behind Hudson on scoring average, as she earned 12.9 per game in 2017-18. Pound’s biggest contribution came on the glass however, as she averaged 8.9 rebounds per contest. Pound also collected a career-high 10 double-doubles in 2017-18, marking the most for any Panther since 2014-15.

For the FIU track and field program, the 2018 slate was another successful season for the Panthers as the squad posted numerous highlights to fill the season. The women’s team posted a fifth-place finish overall at the C-USA Outdoor Championships, marking its highest since 2014 at the event, to continue the program’s improvement.

One of the biggest highlights however came from junior Clarissa Cutliff, who claimed First Team All-American honors after her dominant season in the high jumps. At this winter’s indoor track and field championships in Birmingham, Alabama, Cutliff won her second-straight C-USA high jump title, with a height of 1.84m, her top jump of the year and the best in Conference USA. The Panthers’ women’s team finished with their highest point total in school history. Cutliff advanced to the NCAA Championships, on her way to becoming an All-American.

Terrisa Russell and Sherilene Gelderblom also earned All-Conference USA honors as well, at the conference meet, in the weight throw and 5,000m, respectively.

During the outdoor season, Cutliff continued her dominance in the high jump placing first in all five meets she participated in. Prior the NCAA Regional, she won the 2018 C-USA title with a mark of 1.84m, just shy of her own school record of 1.85m set at the University of Miami Hurricane Collegiate Invitational. Cutliff advanced to the NCAA East Region Prelims where she was one of 11 competitors to clear 1.80m at the NCAA East Region Prelims in Tampa and that was good enough to be one of the top 12 finishers to punch their ticket to the NCAA Championships.

In addition to Cutliff, two other FIU student-athletes won C-USA titles at the outdoor championships. Gabrielle Rains won her first C-USA Championship in the discus, with a throw of 51.59m, however, it was her distance of 51.91m at the University of Miami Hurricane Twilight Invitational that qualified her for the NCAA East Region Prelims. Russell posted a school record and career-best throw of 62.48m, surpassing the previous school record – also held by Russell – set at the University of Miami Twilight Meet, to win her first C-USA title. She, like Rains and Cutliff, advanced to the NCAA East Region Prelims, taking part in not only the hammer throw, but also the discus. Also advancing to the NCAA East Region Prelims was Kenflore Atilus and Asha James.

On the men’s side, Christian Williams, Daniel Neptune, and Luares Tavares, among others, posted numerous first place and top five finishes during the 2018 campaign.

Clarissa Cutliff’s 2018 Resume

- Won both the Indoor and Outdoor C-USA titles in the high jump
- 1st Team and Honorable Mention All-American for Indoor and Outdoor
- Broke her own school record in high jump after a mark of 6-00.7 at the Hurricane Invite

Despite a year plagued with injuries, the FIU softball team fought through adversity and earned its fourth-straight winning season under head coach Gator Rebhan, while also coming a game shy of owning a share of the C-USA regular-season title.

The bright spot for the Panthers last season was their pitching, with FIU’s 2.52 team ERA ranking first in the C-USA for 2018. FIU also held opposing batters to a .226 average and struck out 367 batters, which was also tops in the league. The Panthers were also extremely efficient in the field, owning a conference-best .970 fielding percentage.

The Panthers managed to earn a 16-16 mark in non-conference play, while also going 14-8 in league action for the season. FIU earned highlight wins over SEC foes South Carolina (3-1) and No. 4 Florida (5-0) in non-conference play, with the win over the Gators coming on the road in a hostile environment.

In C-USA action, the Panthers dropped two of three in their first two series, but bounced back nicely to win two out of three over Marshall on the road to improve their record to 18-20 overall on the year.

FIU used the momentum from the Florida and Marshall wins to compile a 10-3 mark in league action to close out the final leg of the regular-season.

At the C-USA Tournament, the surging Panthers would run into an equally hot Middle Tennessee club, who would down FIU, 4-0, on its way to winning the C-USA Tournament title.

The Panthers had four players earn All-Conference USA honors, with three selected to the first team in Kasandra Castle, Jackie Schoff and Shannon Saile, while Jessica Rivera claimed second team laurels. Additionally, Vanessa Gallegos earned C-USA All-Freshman team honors for her efforts in 2018.

The Panthers also made a dent in the record books, as Saile’s 18 strikeouts against Florida Atlantic (April 7) rank as fifth all-time in league history and is the most strikeouts by any Panther since FIU joined C-USA.

The 2018 campaign will go down as one of the best seasons in school history for the young FIU beach volleyball program, after the Panthers earned their first-ever NCAA Championships Finals berth following an at-large bid.

FIU posted a 23-12 record in 2018, coming just one win shy of matching the school record for most wins in a season set in 2017. The Panthers earned a 7-3 mark overall in the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) play, while finishing third overall in the conference and capping the league tournament with a semifinal appearance.

The Panthers began the year by winning six of their first seven matches, but faltered on the West Coast after dropping all four tough matches to USC, UCLA, Hawaii and Pepperdine. FIU bounced back nicely following the losses however, as the Panthers won their next 10 matches to improve to 16-5 on the season. The Panthers would close out the regular season with a 4-2 mark as FIU entered the CCSA Conference Tournament in Emerson, Georgia as the No. 3 seed overall.

FIU downed College of Charleston (5-0), Tulane (3-2) and UAB (5-0), but fell to the top two seeded teams at the tournament in South Carolina (3-2) and Florida State (5-0) to finish in the semifinals. Following a 23-10 mark overall, the Panthers received an at-large bid as one of only eight teams for the NCAA Championships, which also marked the first-ever NCAA Championships berth in program history for FIU.

FIU would lose to powerhouse and No. 1 ranked UCLA (3-0) to open the tournament, before the Panthers followed up the loss with a narrow defeat to No. 5 USC as FIU fell 3-2 to end its historic run.

The FIU pair of Federica Frasca and Margherita Bianchin, were one of the most dominating tandems in collegiate beach volleyball all year, ending the season with a 27-8 record and ranked at No. 10 in the nation at No. 1. The pair was one of just six tandems nationwide at No. 1 to record more than 25 wins in the season.

In addition, Estefanie Bethancourt and Natalia Giron recorded a 22-12 overall mark, and 17-7 at the No. 4 position. Mariana Dal Pozzo and Taija Thomas posted an impressive 19-6 record on the year.

2018 RECORD: 26-28 | C-USA RECORD: 15-13 (6TH) | POSTSEASON: N/A

FIU baseball was 26-28 overall this past season and went 15-13 in Conference USA play.

The Panthers hit 69 home runs to finish tied for second in the conference with Southern Miss. Florida Atlantic led C-USA with 72 homers. The 69 home runs tied for the sixth most in FIU baseball history. The 1981 FIU team also hit 69 homers, however the 2018 FIU team hit the same number of homers in four less games.

FIU finished second in C-USA with a .288 average. C-USA champion Southern Miss led the league with a .304 average. FIU was also second to Southern Miss (.469) with a .454 slugging percentage.

FIU pitchers led the conference with 504 strikeouts, which is eighth most in program history. The 1998 FIU pitching staff holds the program record with 675 punch outs.

Among FIU’s offensive highlights this season were second baseman Eddie Silva hitting 16 home runs, which tied for sixth most in FIU history. Former FIU shortstop Hiram Silfa hit 16 homers in 1999. Silva finished tied for the C-USA lead in round trippers with Southern Miss’s Matt Wallner. Silva was second in the league in slugging percentage (.686) to USM’s Luke Reynolds (.727).

Silva was named Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week (April 30) after hitting .600 with four home runs and 12 RBI.

Freshman Jose Garcia broke the FIU freshman home run record by knocking 13 long balls. Garcia eclipsed the mark held by Jabari Henry, who hit 12 homers in 2010. Henry was named the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year in 2010. Garcia was named the Conference USA Freshman of the Year after this season.

Andres Nunez led the Panthers pitching staff compiling a 6-2 record and a 3.42 ERA. Nunez topped FIU pitchers in both wins and ERA after missing all of last season with a lat injury.

Logan Allen was second on the staff with five wins. The freshman left-hander led the Panthers with 85 strikeouts. Allen missed breaking the FIU freshman strikeout record by seven. Former FIU right-hander Derek DeCarlo struck out 92 batters in 2002.

FIU had five players receive All-Conference USA recognition with Silva making the All-Conference USA First Team. Nunez, third baseman Austin Shenton and Allen made the Second Team. Garcia and Allen were selected for the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
